

2. Disability Service Providers and the Victorian Disability Act 2006

The Act requires services to be of high quality and accountable to people with a disability and their family members and carers. It sets standards and performance measures for disability services.

For more information about good services click on the following link:

- www.dhs.vic.gov.au/for-individuals/disability/your-rights/disability-act-2006/high-quality-services